Trainee feedback

"... delivered by enthusiastic, approachable people that made accessing the information very easy."

"...a lovely balance of learning by doing!"

"...once again a fantastic, practical and thought-provoking day."

Join us on our face-to-face, fully outdoors, training course to learn about the Forest School pedagogy and how to set up and run your own Forest School programmes.

Course units include:

- Delivering Forest School sessions
- Supporting learning, play and development
- Observation and evaluation
- Sustainable use and management of natural resources
- Teaching outdoor practical skills

Our experienced staff are members of the Outdoor Learning Training Network which covers best practice, quality and standardisation of courses across all registered trainers. We are also an Awarding Body Centre with Agored Cymru, ensuring quality standards are maintained and checked.
